April 9 - Depart USA

April 10 - Arrive in Frankfurt, Germany

Christmas reigns all year round in Rothenburg, a jewel of a town on Germany's picturesque Romantic Road. This charming and historical town with its cobblestone streets, wood-frame buildings and walled city ramparts is known over the world and ranks among Germany's most frequented towns. Beyond the year-round Christmas markets, the town boasts one of the most intact medieval city walls in Europe and a fairly unique clock. During the Thirty Years' War, a former Rothenburg mayor was offered the chance to save the city by chugging close to a gallon of wine; he succeeded (and then slept for three days straight), and his accomplishment is re-enacted seven times daily by mechanical figures on the clock in the Marktplatz.

- Nightwatchman Tour

This evening, learn some of the tales of mystery and horror as we join the intriguing Nightwatchman on his walking tour through the dark allies and chilling past of some of the cities more gruesome characters.

April 13 - Munich via The Romantic Road

There is no surprise here. The Romantic Road is exactly what it says it is -- a drive down the middle of Western Bavaria's heartland and a path through the center of your own heart with its romantic picturesque scenery. Between Würzburg and Füssen, the route is strewn with quaint villages, colorful castles, farmhouses, elaborate churches and dense forest.

April 14 - Munich Sight-seeing

Join a professional licensed tour guide for a whirlwind look at Munich. Founded in the 12th century by Henry the Lion, Munich now roars with the hustle and bustle of modern German life. As you pass by Marienplatz (named after the square's gilded Virgin Mary and Child statue), mechanical knights joust and coopers dance to the folk-music chimes of the Neues Rathaus's Glockenspiel. The twin onion-bulb towers of the Frauenkirche Cathedral frame this whimsical display, while the scents, sounds, and colors of the nearby food market attempt to draw your attention elsewhere. Resist temptation and continue on to Olympiapark, a new suburb built for the 1972 Olympic Games. Pass by several museums, such as the BMW Museum and the Deutsches Museum of science and technology.

2011 GLOBAL BOWL - GERMANY

TEAM STARS & STRIPES VS. GERMANY JR. TEAM

April 15 - Neuschwanstein & Linderhof

This elaborate castle was built atop a rock ledge over the Pöllat Gorge in the Bavarian Alps by order of Bavaria's King Ludwig II, referred to as "Mad Ludwig," whose favorite pastime was midnight sleigh rides through the countryside. This stronghold was the crowning jewel of the king's building spree across Bavaria and was the inspiration for Cinderella's castle in Disney World. Begun in 1869 and left unfinished at Ludwig's death in 1886, this lavish palace is an eccentric reconstruction of a medieval castle, and it boasts major technological and architectural achievements for the time, including running water, flushing toilets, a hot water system for the kitchen, and bathrooms with warm-air heating systems.
