

Dear Student Athlete:

You have been nominated to join Team Stars & Stripes 2012 by someone who has followed you throughout your high school career and has been impressed by your achievements and maturity. This nomination indicates that you would be an asset to our team that will be traveling to Italy, April 14-22, 2012 for an educational and athletic tour. As president of Global Football I want to congratulate you on your success and hope that you will be able to join our team!

Since 1996 I have been extremely fortunate to have created and produced football games in 19 different nations with amateur teams of various levels. We have taken similar teams to Japan twice as well as France and Germany in recent years. We are eager to make Italy our destination for 2012! Italy is full of historical and cultural wonders. Football has been played at a solid level in Italy for decades due to a strong development program that is among the best in Europe. During our tour you will visit the classic town of Florence, see the wonders of Rome and experience the Mediterranean coastal region. Your parents, family and coaches are encouraged to join you on this exciting tour. While you may miss one week of classes at home, the experience and knowledge you will gain in Italy will greatly expand your understanding of the world.

Along with our excellent coaching staff we are looking for 44 top quality young men who will be proud to represent our country, their school, their families and themselves! We need high school seniors with solid academic backgrounds, high moral character, who love playing football and who will be unique ambassadors for our sport. We plan to play hard and fast, to demonstrate the high quality of football played in our country and to come home with a victory.

If you would like to accept this challenge I ask that you to please complete the attached form and submit it to Coach Jeff Scurran: GlobalBowlScurran@yahoo.com.

Applications must be submitted by December 1, 2011, but the sooner the better. Final team selection will be made by December 10, 2011. Your commitments and $250 deposit will be needed by January 10, 2012. The total fee to travel and compete in Global Bowl Italy 2012 is $3,795/player. This includes round trip flights from an East Coast city and all ground expenses in Italy. Anthony Travel will handle all registrations, payments, flights and bookings, as they have done for all Global Football tours for over a decade. You will be playing the Italian National Team in Rome on April 21, 2012.

If you, your coach or parents have any questions, please contact me by email at Patrick@GlobalFootball.com or by phone at 817-219-7274. You may also contact Coach Scurran at 520-906-7733. We hope you can join us!
