

KILELENI LEADERSHIP

BY
GLOBAL FOOTBALL

Presented by
Global Football & Dvorak Expeditions

Dvorak's Rafting & Fishing Expeditions
Est. 1969

Game Plan Outline

1. TEAM: Together Everyone Achieves the Mountaintop
2. Goals – Think Big! Utilize the challenging natural environment of the Colorado Rockies
3. Motivated leaders support one another physically and mentally, developing the true team
4. Instill leadership in your team, inspiring and enabling peak performance
5. Methods to achieve the mountaintop, using teamwork and leadership experience
6. Identify the leader within, allowing individuals to summit as a team
7. TEAM Experiences: Whitewater rafting and top rope climbing; achieve success and overcome fears
8. Kileleni Leadership Team – uniquely experienced in designing, implementing, managing, and executing leadership experiences for all types of individuals in challenging settings worldwide

KILELENI-

Swahili word meaning 'to the Summit'

Our Goal Each Day, Each Task, Every Moment

Provide athletic Teams with a unique opportunity to utilize the challenging natural environment of the Colorado Rockies in ways that will:

- Develop Team leaders
- Build powerful personal relationships among Team members
- Demand the athletes sacrifice for the success of the Team
- Enable Team leaders to emerge
- Focus on Mental Strength of each individual, and the TEAM
- Allow the Team to celebrate the accomplishments achieved together

Through intense Effort, selfless Leadership and powerful Peer Support, each Team member will approach their PERSONAL BEST , and help the TEAM do same.

An aerial photograph of a dense evergreen forest, likely a spruce or fir forest, with a mix of green and some brownish-orange foliage. The trees are packed closely together, creating a textured, layered appearance. The lighting is somewhat dim, suggesting an overcast day or a shaded forest floor.

The Team, especially those with powerful, motivated Leaders, has the unique ability to support each individual member mentally and physically, to allow that Team member to perform and achieve seemingly impossible tasks, thereby helping the Team achieve its stated goals.

A well-trained and properly motivated Team, with strong Leadership, will achieve their Mountaintop...

Then transfer the lessons learned to their athletic competition, to their personal lives.

Praise For The Global Football Team

“Patrick, China 2019 was an unbelievable trip, and you and your team were tremendous. The best with whom I’ve had the opportunity to work on a trip.”

- Dr. M. Grace Calhoun

Director of Athletics and Recreation

University of Pennsylvania

Chair of NCAA Division I Council

A wide-angle landscape photograph of a mountain range. In the foreground, a rocky ridge with sparse, brownish vegetation slopes down. Several hikers in colorful jackets (red, blue, green) are visible on the ridge. The middle ground shows a deep valley with a winding river and a large lake. The background features more mountain peaks under a heavy, grey, overcast sky. The overall mood is dramatic and adventurous.

INSTILL LEADERSHIP IN YOUR TEAM

Seeking Leaders wanting to develop their talents to enable Peak Performance, thereby helping build their team!

Amateur athletic Teams- mens and womens, all sports, all ages

- Football, Soccer
- Swimming, lacrosse, volleyball
- Basketball, softball, baseball
- Hockey, track & field, field hockey, etc.

METHODS TO ACHIEVE THE MOUNTAINTOP

Based upon decades of experience in athletics, travel, communications and business, we know that Teams can be uniquely forged outdoors, and lessons transferred to other goals the Team may use in its sport.

The single-most powerful challenge in nature that a Team can face and overcome, together, in the space of one day is to hike to the summit of a rugged mountain.

There are over 600 mountains in Colorado that tower more than 13,000 feet, 58 of them over 14,000 feet, hundreds more somewhat lower yet each presenting a uniquely daunting challenge.

Each poses dramatic physical barriers, as well as mental and emotional ones, very similar to real-life obstacles needed to overcome in order to achieve success.

Teamwork and Leadership are best learned through Experience, Outdoors!

A person is silhouetted against a bright sunset over a vast mountain range. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm orange and yellow glow. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a lighter orange near the horizon. The foreground shows the dark silhouette of a mountain peak with some trees. The overall scene is serene and inspiring.

IDENTIFY THE LEADER WITHIN

Our 'Kileleni Leadership' group understands, through decades of experience, the key elements encountered during these Outdoor Learning Adventures.

These obstacles will cause novice hikers to seek out Leaders among their peers, to bond together in physical and mental spirit in order to get every Team member to the mountaintop, to Summit as a TEAM.

Our pre and post-hike 'huddles' are critical, as will focus on key topics the Coach feels are important for his or her student athletes, in conjunction with items we as leaders and instructors also feel are impactful.

TEAM EXPERIENCES

We suggest including two other challenging outdoor TEAM elements, providing a comprehensive 2 or 3-day experiences.

Taking on one of America's top whitewater rivers, the Arkansas, working together in 4-6 person boat teams, coordinated and led by a highly skilled and experienced river guide.

Whitewater rafting requires each team member to closely adhere to instructions, to paddle as directed, to achieve success by getting safely downstream and to overcome normal individual fears.

4-6 hours daily on a frothing, dynamic river paddling together will work wonders in developing your Team, in identifying Leaders.

A person wearing a white helmet and an orange jacket is climbing a narrow, vertical rock crevice. The climber is positioned in the center of the frame, with their body pressed against the rock walls. The rock surface is dark and textured. The background shows a blurred view of a river or stream with white water rapids, suggesting a high-altitude or mountainous environment. The text "ADDITIONAL CHALLENGES" is overlaid in white, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the image.

ADDITIONAL CHALLENGES

Top-rope rock climbing and rappelling on challenging yet achievable rock faces.

Every Team member will feel fear on the rock, a natural sense that can be overcome through Trust and Team Encouragement.

Team members will work together to insure safety, to support and assist other Teammates, under the watchful eyes of highly trained and experienced instructors.

ITINERARY- 5 DAYS / 4 NIGHTS
or custom-length to fit

Day 1: Arrive the Arkansas River Valley, transport to base camp or hotel, Huddle Orientation

Day 2: Transfer to river launch site, safety lesson, full-day raft on the Arkansas river, camp

Day 3: Climbing instructions, top-rope rappelling, on-belay climbing, base camp, prep for Mtn Summit

Day 4: TEAM summit hike, weather permitting we will tackle 14,232' Mt. Shavano, or another peak, head down to camp or hotel, celebration dinner, post-Experience Huddle

Day 5: Breakfast, head for home

(This could be adjusted to one less day if we eliminate the climbing/rappelling experience)

Kileleni Leadership Team

“Patrick and I have taken my football teams to Germany, Austria, Panama, and Tanzania on amazing trips that positively impacted everyone involved in all kinds of ways. We climbed mountains in both Austria and Tanzania and that experience alone made the trips worth it. The opportunity for leadership development in the Rocky Mountains will be incredible.

It is the perfect combination of his expertise and the difficult but attainable summit experience. I highly recommend developing your leaders through this unique opportunity.”

- Chris Creighton, Head Football Coach, Eastern Michigan University

Kileleni Leadership Team

Global Football team member Kevin Steenberge will work directly with clients designing and guiding customized leadership Experiences.

An All-Conference player at the University of Richmond, former professional basketball player, and graduate of the Jepson School of Leadership Studies (B.A. '06), Kevin brings a unique understanding of leadership as an athlete at the highest levels and in the world beyond sports.

IN GOOD HANDS...

Global Football Founder & President Patrick Steenberge will personally manage and lead the Kileleni Leadership Experiences, in partnership with Dvorak Expeditions, Colorado's 1st licensed outfitter.

A former Notre Dame quarterback under Ara Parseghian, Patrick has organized and led educational team sports tours in 28 countries on 6 continents since 1996.

Contact: Patrick Steenberge

patrick@globalfootball.com

817.219.7274

